Clean-up Help from New York Voluntary Agencies

New York Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster (NYVOAD) is coordinating requests for household clean-up and mud-out in impacted areas across New York State. There are currently dozens of teams from NYVOAD member agencies on the ground assisting residents in cleaning flood debris from their residences. This effort is being coordinated by NYVOAD statewide.

Clean up teams are forming from various NYVOAD member agencies including:

- American Baptist Men
- Bona Responds
- Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints
- Lutheran Disaster Services
- Mennonite Disaster Services
- Presbyterian Mission to North America Disaster Response
- Reformed Church of Christ
- Southern Baptist
- United Methodist Committee on Relief
- Volunteers in Mission

Residents with requests can call 211 in their area (in collaboration with 211 of NENY, 211 Hudson Valley and 211 Susquehanna Valley) or if 211 is unavailable they can complete the request form at www.nyvoad.org/debris.
